

THE VILLAGE OF BENAHAVIS

The dining room of the Costa del Sol

Andalucía

A getaway that's not miles away

Benahavis village is situated only 7 kilometers from the coast. This Paradise of Nature is only a few kilometres from the coastline and the lively resort towns of Marbella, Puerto Banus and Estepona.

The municipality of Benahavis stretches across the foothills of the mountain range and is shaped by three rivers, each forming its own valley. Offering a diverse landscape and some truly admirable places to visit, the area is an extremely popular tourist destination.

Stretching from the coast road to the inland village, Benahavis covers a large footprint which is particularly popular with golfers; Los Arqueros, Guadalmina Golf course, Atalaya Golf & Country Club, La Quinta and Marbella club golf resort all fall within the Benahavis municipality.

A Haven of Tranquility

The town itself is surrounded by natural parkland, and retains the cozy feeling of a traditional Spanish white-washed village. However, the prestigious real estate in the area contributes to Benahavis' status as the richest municipality per capita in Andalucía.

Places of great natural and historic interest are to be found within its boundaries, such as El Cerro del Duque, Daidin, and the Montemayor Castle.

The area is renowned for its scenery and outdoor activities which include hiking and mountain bike treks, hidden rock pools and inland waterfalls and of course Golf at some of the most acclaimed courses in Southern Spain.

Peaceful surroundings, perfect to relax, play a round of golf or engage in adventure sports.

Benahavis holds 12 of the 70 golf courses in the Costa del Sol

Stretching from the coast road to the inland village, Benahavis covers a large footprint which is particularly popular with golfers. Los Arqueros, Guadalmina Golf course, Atalaya Golf & Country Club La Quinta and Marbella club golf resort all fall within the Benahavis municipality.

In addition to the renowned golf resorts, the area is also home to some of the most exclusive residential real estate in Southern Spain: La Heredia the popular modern Andalucían village, further elevated towards Benahavis you will find La Zagaleta, El Madonal and now the new Benahavis Hills Country Club. Accredited for its restaurants, the village is often called the "dining room of the Costa del Sol".

Benahavis village has the highest concentration of first class restaurants in the region and draws visitors by the thousand who come simply to savour the cuisine.
